

Bible-Basketball Challenge

Learn the Word of God
and Sharpen Your Game

Saturday, May 20, 2017 - 1:00pm-4:00pm
195 North Street, Portland
East End Community Center Gym

Compete to Master
Book of Luke, Chapters 1-7 only
& Have Fun

Here's How It Works:

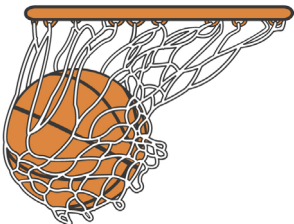

1. Churches, parachurch ministries, families or friends can organize a team or teams of three players
2. Players will study the Book of Luke, Chapters 1-7 leading up to May 20. An adult "coach" is recommended.
3. During the Challenge each team will be asked a series of objective questions related to the content.
4. Each time a team answers a question correctly, it will be awarded points. Then, each player on the team gets to shoot a foul shot and a layup to add more points to its total.
5. At the end of the competition, points will be totaled and the winning and runner-up team will be awarded trophies. (All participants will be recognized and receive prizes.)

How to Sign Up:

Contact Rev. Jim Duran at the Bible Society of Maine (bibleme@maine.rr.com or 207-712-0282.) We have New Testaments available in the CEV translation. Though there is no sign-up fee for the Bible-Basketball Challenge, we ask sponsoring churches to consider receiving an offering from their congregation for the Bible Society of Maine as an encouragement to the children and to our ministry.

www.biblesocietyofmaine.org
Facebook: Bible Society of Maine

Bible-Basketball Challenge

Learn the Word of God
and Sharpen Your Game

Saturday, May 20, 2017 - 1:00pm-4:00pm
195 North Street, Portland
East End Community Center Gym

Compete to Master
Book of Luke, Chapters 1-7 only
& Have Fun

Here's How It Works:

1. Churches, parachurch ministries, families or friends can organize a team or teams of three players
2. Players will study the Book of Luke, Chapters 1-7 leading up to May 20. An adult "coach" is recommended.
3. During the Challenge each team will be asked a series of objective questions related to the content.
4. Each time a team answers a question correctly, it will be awarded points. Then, each player on the team gets to shoot a foul shot and a layup to add more points to its total.
5. At the end of the competition, points will be totaled and the winning and runner-up team will be awarded trophies. (All participants will be recognized and receive prizes.)

How to Sign Up:

Contact Rev. Jim Duran at the Bible Society of Maine (bibleme@maine.rr.com or 207-712-0282.) We have New Testaments available in the CEV translation. Though there is no sign-up fee for the Bible-Basketball Challenge, we ask sponsoring churches to consider receiving an offering from their congregation for the Bible Society of Maine as an encouragement to the children and to our ministry.

www.biblesocietyofmaine.org
Facebook: Bible Society of Maine